

Secretary for Justice to visit London

The Secretary for Justice, Mr Rimsky Yuen, SC, will visit London from October 13 to 15 to promote Hong Kong's status as an international legal and dispute resolution services centre at the London Law Expo 2014.

Mr Yuen will deliver a keynote speech at the Expo in the morning of October 14 to introduce Hong Kong's legal and arbitration services to the Expo's participants.

Apart from attending the Expo, Mr Yuen will also deliver a speech at a luncheon organised by the Hong Kong Association on October 14, and attend a seminar on Hong Kong's constitutional reform and the rule of law organised by Chatham House on October 15.

Mr Yuen will return to Hong Kong on October 16.

Ends/Friday, October 10, 2014
