

DoJ clarifies rumours on curfew

In response to an online forum saying that the Secretary for Justice has discussed with lawyers on the legal consequences and the corresponding measures of a curfew on several occasions, a spokesman for the Department of Justice today (October 8) clarified that the allegations were totally fabricated and unfounded.

Ends/Tuesday, October 8, 2019