

DSJ to visit Hainan to promote HK-Hainan co-operation to seize free trade port opportunities

The Deputy Secretary for Justice, Dr Cheung Kwok-kwan, will depart for Haikou, Hainan, this afternoon (October 15) to attend the 2025 Hainan Free Trade Port Legal Week to promote Hong Kong's legal services and strengthen co-operation between Hainan and Hong Kong to seize the opportunities arising from the official launch of an island-wide independent customs operation of the Hainan Free Trade Port, scheduled to commence this December.

Dr Cheung will speak at the opening ceremony of the Hainan Legal Week themed "Law-based Free Trade Port-Sharing New Opportunities". During his visit to Haikou, Dr Cheung will also meet with leaders of the Department of Justice of Hainan Province and the High People's Court of Hainan Province, as well as the local legal community to strengthen co-operation between Hong Kong and Hainan.

Dr Cheung will return to Hong Kong on October 17.
