

DSJ to visit Indonesia

The Deputy Secretary for Justice, Dr Cheung Kwok-kwan, will depart for Jakarta, Indonesia tomorrow (February 9) to attend the China Conference: Southeast Asia 2026 in Jakarta on February 10.

At the Conference, Dr Cheung will share views on how Hong Kong plays its distinctive role as a "super connector" in fostering ties and collaboration between the Chinese Mainland and various regions, including Southeast Asia, by leveraging its unique advantages under "one country, two systems", a robust rule of law environment based on common law regime, and its top-notch legal, financial and other professional services.

Dr Cheung will return to Hong Kong on February 11.

Ends/Sunday, February 8, 2026
