

DSJ to attend Nusa Dua Forum in Indonesia

The Deputy Secretary for Justice, Dr Cheung Kwok-kwan, will depart for Bali, Indonesia this afternoon (July 16) to attend the Nusa Dua Forum to be held tomorrow (July 17). The forum, organised by Danantara Indonesia, an Indonesian strategic investment management institution, aims to bring together senior executives from sovereign wealth funds, family offices, and institutional investors to discuss strategies for navigating Asia's rapidly changing capital markets.

During the forum, Dr Cheung will deliver a keynote speech to promote Hong Kong's unique advantages. He will explain how Hong Kong, with its robust rule of law based on the common law system, high-quality professional services, well-developed financial infrastructure, and innovative policy measures, serves as a strategic partner for global capital amid a challenging geopolitical environment.

Dr Cheung will return to Hong Kong on July 18.

Ends/Thursday, July 16, 2026