- (b) in the case of failure by that airline to comply with the laws or regulations of the Contracting Party granting those rights; or
- (c) if that airline otherwise fails to operate in accordance with the conditions prescribed under this Agreement.

- (3) The agreed services provided by the designated airlines of the Contracting Parties shall bear a close relationship to the requirements of the public for transportation on the specified routes and shall have as their primary objective the provision at a reasonable load factor of capacity adequate to meet the current and reasonably anticipated requirements for the carriage of passengers and cargo, including mail, originating in or destined for the area of the Contracting Party which has designated the airline. - (3) Neither of the aeronautical authorities of both Contracting Parties will require their designated airlines to consult other airlines operating over the whole or part of the same route before filing tariffs for approval, nor they will prevent such consultation. References in this paragraph and paragraph (2) of this Article to “the same route” are to the route operated, not the specified route.
