Record of Meeting of the Supreme People's Court and the Department of Justice of the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region on Further Enhancement of Exchanges and Cooperation

To thoroughly implement the major decisions and arrangements set out in the Outline of the 14th Five-Year Plan for National Economic and Social Development of the People's Republic of China and the Long-Range Objectives through the Year 2035, advance law-based governance on all fronts, support the better integration of Hong Kong into the country's overall development, and strengthen judicial exchanges and cooperation between the Mainland and Hong Kong, the Supreme People's Court and the Department of Justice of the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region have reached the following consensus:

1. The two parties agree to study ways to improve the legal regulatory interface and connectivity between the Mainland and Hong Kong, in particular within the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area ("GBA"). The two parties shall actively take forward the work on mutual recognition of and assistance to bankruptcy (insolvency) proceedings, explore specific measures to optimise the mutual service of judicial documents in civil and commercial proceedings, refine the regime for assistance in the taking of evidence and further promote the establishment of a regional judicial assistance mechanism with Chinese characteristics, with a view to providing more comprehensive legal protection for the integrated development between the Mainland and Hong Kong.

2. The two parties agree to study ways to further optimise the diverse dispute resolution mechanism based on joint planning, joint contribution and shared benefits in the GBA, so as to promote the use of arbitration and mediation services. The two parties shall support Hong Kong legal professionals in joining the International Commercial Expert Committee of the Supreme People's Court and serving as specially invited mediators and people's assessors of people's courts in the Mainland, strengthen cooperation in law ascertainment and explore the establishment of a judicial research platform in the GBA.

3. The two parties agree to encourage and facilitate mutual exchanges. Under the coordination of the Hong Kong and Macao Affairs Office of the State Council, the two parties shall promote regular reciprocal visits, secondments and internships for their personnel, commence study and training in judicial assistance and arrange Mainland practical legal training for Hong Kong legal practitioners who have passed the GBA Legal Professional Examination.

4. The two parties agree to encourage judicial informatization and explore the strengthening of judicial cooperation via the Internet and the establishment of an online platform for judicial assistance.

To facilitate timely communication and contact between the two parties on matters relating to this record of meeting, both parties agree to exchange information of their respective designated contact persons after the signing of this record of meeting.
