The 15th China-ASEAN Prosecutors-General Conference was hosted by the Supreme People's Procuratorate of the People's Republic of China ("SPP") and organized by the Department of Justice in Hong Kong on 23 September 2025.

Initiated by the SPP in 2004, the Conference is a regular multilateral platform for high-level exchanges between prosecution authorities of China and the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ("ASEAN") member states on issues of common interest, and forms part of the comprehensive strategic partnership between China and ASEAN.

The Conference in 2025, themed "Combatting Money Laundering and Corruption, and Recovering Assets in the Technological Age", was attended by around 80 prosecutors, including heads and high-ranking officials of prosecution authorities from China and ASEAN member states. The opening ceremony was officiated by the Chief Grand Prosecutor and Prosecutor General of the SPP, Mr Ying Yong, the Chief Executive, Mr John Lee, and the Secretary for Justice, Mr Paul Lam SC.

Heads of delegations signed the Joint Declaration of the Conference, declaring and reaffirming the commitment of China and ASEAN member states to strengthen co-operation in the fight against transnational crimes.
