

Ms Catherine Mun

Member, Greater China Legal Affairs Committee, The Law Society of Hong Kong

Ms Catherine Mun is a partner in the Dispute Resolution Group of Li & Partners, specialising in domestic and international commercial and construction-related arbitration and litigation, particularly disputes with a cross-border and Chinese element. Types of disputes involved include those arising from commercial contracts, joint venture contracts, construction and engineering contracts, sale and purchase of shares, international sale of goods, telecommunication and heavy industry equipment and production lines, distributorships, product liability and enforcement of security documents.

Over the years, Ms Mun has advised various multi-national entities, stated-owned entities, public sector bodies, international corporations, developers and contractors in relation to issues associated with her practice areas. She has been involved in many substantial domestic and international arbitrations including ad hoc arbitrations and institutional HKIAC, CIETAC and ICC arbitrations under various arbitration rules, as well as ICSID arbitration. Parties involved in arbitrations include those from Mainland China, the US, Europe and the wider Asia Region.

Ms Mun sits as arbitrator and is on the panels of arbitrators of various arbitration institutions including CIETAC, HKIAC, SCIA and PIAC. She has arbitrated a number of disputes as sole arbitrator or co-arbitrator in HKIAC, CIETAC, ICC, SCIA and ad hoc arbitrations.

Ms Mun is a China-Appointed Attesting Officer appointed by the Ministry of Justice of the PRC. She is currently a member of the Board of Review (Inland Review Ordinance) and a chairman of the Appeal Tribunal Panel (Buildings Ordinance). She is also a member of each of The Law Society of Hong Kong's Standing Committee on Standards and Development, Arbitration Committee, Greater China Legal Affairs Committee and RME Accreditation Sub-Committee.

Ms Mun is a law graduate from University of Hong Kong (LLB), University of Oxford (BCL) and Tsinghua University (2nd LLB). She is dual qualified as a solicitor in Hong Kong (1998) and England & Wales (2000).
