Seminar on Resolving Cross-border Commercial Disputes by Mediation

With the active promotion of the "Belt and Road" initiative by the Mainland, it follows that cross-border trade would increase substantially and commercial disputes are expected to follow. Demands for cross-border mediation would likewise increase. To explore the opportunities and competitiveness of Hong Kong, Macau and the Mainland, the Department of Justice and Hong Kong Mediation Centre will jointly organise a seminar on "Resolving Cross-border Commercial Disputes by Mediation". The seminar will cover development of mediation and future opportunities in Macau, Mainland and Hong Kong.
