Nancy is a founding partner of Leung & Lau. She obtained her LL.B., with honours, and P.C.LL. from the University of Hong Kong (top student in second year and second place overall), and her LL.M. from the University of Cambridge, England. During her studies, Nancy has been awarded a significant number of academic prizes and scholarships, including scholarships that provided for her further studies in Cambridge.

Nancy is the panel solicitor of a substantial number of corporations, both local and foreign.

Nancy also has experience in other both contentious and non-contentious matters.

She has given talks on numerous legal issues in Hong Kong and overseas.

Nancy is a member of one of the Law Society Committee which was set up in June 2007 to consider and keep under review all matters relating to the law, procedure and practice of personal injuries litigation in Hong Kong.

Nancy is also the External Examiner for City University and an Examiner for the Overseas Lawyers Qualification Examination.

Nancy is also listed as one of the seven leading lawyer in Hong Kong for insurance matters by the Asialaw Leading Lawyers. With her experience and reputation, Nancy was also appointed as a Deputy District Court Judge in 2012.

Apart from practicing law, Nancy also taught at the Vocational Training Council, the University of Hong Kong and the City University, teaching various law courses.

Nancy is also an accredited general mediator and has substantial experience in mediation, either as a mediator, or party's representative.
