

Yeung Sai Man

Yeung Sai Man obtained his Bachelor of Law and solicitor's qualification in England and Wales. He then worked as a practicing solicitor in Sydney, New South Wales, Australia, in 1989 prior to his return to Hong Kong. Yeung Sai Man has been a practicing solicitor in Hong Kong since 1991. Due to his interest in using mediation for resolving commercial disputes, he started his further studies and obtained his Master of Laws (Arbitration and Dispute Resolution) from Hong Kong University in 2009. He is now a partner of Waller Ma Huang & Yeung. His practice includes commercial, property, family, civil litigation and mediation cases. Apart from working as a lawyer, he has been an Adjunct Associate Professor of The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, a trainer of the Law Society of Hong Kong's Mandatory Risk Management Education Programme and an accredited general and family mediator (Hong Kong Mediation Accreditation Association Limited (HKMAAL), the Law Society of Hong Kong and Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre) and an assessor of HKMAAL stage 2 assessment. He was the past treasurer and vice chairman of Hong Kong Mediation Council and is speaker, facilitator and coach on mediation seminars and workshops for various institutions or organisations.
