

Robyn Hooworth BSW (Hons Psych) has been working in Private Practice as a Mediator, Supervisor, Lead Assessor, Trainer and Dispute Resolution Consultant in both HK and Australia since training as a mediator in the USA in 1987. She is also a Senior Teaching and Research Member with the Dispute Resolution Centre, School of Law, Bond University, Australia.

Robyn is an Australian Nationally Accredited General Mediator and an Australian Accredited Family Dispute Resolution Practitioner / Mediator. She is also a Fellow Mediator of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and Mediators, London. Robyn is an Accredited Member of HKMAAL and HKIAC and is on the HKMAAL and HKIAC Panels for Accredited General and Family Mediators and Supervisors.

Robyn has been actively involved in promoting and establishing mediation in HK and conducting Training and Assessment courses for both General and Family Mediators in HK, London, the Asian Region and Australia. Robyn has been appointed the Chairperson of the Working Group on Accreditation Standards of HKMAAL and leads the Working Group to develop a common accreditation benchmark for Hong Kong mediators. Robyn has recently set up the Hong Kong and Asian Pacific Mediation Training and Continued Professional Educational Institute to ensure the continued professionalism and international standards of mediators in Hong Kong and throughout the Asian and Pacific Region. .