

Dr Nadja Alexander is Foundation Director and Professor of the Institute of Conflict Engagement and Resolution (IICER) at Hong Kong Shue Yan University. She is a Principal of Conflict Coaching International and holds adjunct professorial appointments at universities in Australia and Europe.

Nadja is an experienced conflict resolution professional and trainer with a practice extending from Asia to the Middle East, Europe, North America, Africa, and Australia and Oceania. She is listed in the International Who's Who of Commercial Mediation and practices in the English and German languages.

Nadja is both a multi-award winning writer (2007, 2011 New York) and trainer (1994, 1995, 1996 Queensland and 1997 Australia). She has been named one of Australia's top five law academics by Business Woman Magazine. She has published more than 100 pieces on conflict resolution and her work has appeared in the English, German, Russian, French and Chinese languages. She is editor of the international book series, Global Trends in Dispute Resolution and the Kluwer Mediation Blog. Her major legal work International Comparative Mediation won the New York CPR Award for Outstanding ADR Book in 2011.

Nadja is actively engaged in conflict resolution policy development in a range of countries. Current appointments include the Hong Kong Mediation Steering Committee, the Standards Commission of the International Mediation Institute, Singapore Mediation Working Party, Advisory Board member of the Indian International ADR Association (IIAA) and the Financial Disputes Resolution Centre of Hong Kong. She is a former member of the Australian National Alternative Dispute Resolution Advisory Council (NADRAC) and the German National Council to advise on a Mediation Law.

During 2012-2014 Nadja is leading a mediation initiative in the Pacific for the World Bank Group, which involves designing and implementing legal-structural and practice-based impulses for a shift in commercial conflict resolution culture. She is also active in mediation developments in Egypt, and Vietnam and working on a negotiation in mining initiative in Cameroon.
