

Mr. Wu is an accredited mediator in Hong Kong and has many years of practical experience as a mediator. Mr. Wu has obtained a Bachelor Degree in Building & Real Estate Management with The Curtin University of Technology, Australia, and a Master Degree in Building Project Management with Hong Kong Polytechnic University.

By profession, Mr. Wu is a Registered Professional Engineer, Registered Inspector under Mandatory Building Inspection Scheme and a Chartered Surveyor, specializing in building project management. He has vast experience in waterproofing projects for the past 30 years from which he developed an expertise in water seepage investigation. For his expertise in water seepage investigation, Mr. Wu often serves as an expert in Court litigation, mediation and arbitration. Currently he is the Managing Director of Tru-tight & Associates Ltd., a company in the business of building project management.

Mr. Wu is a devoted and pioneer advocate for community mediation.